*CALL TO WORSHIP

Scott Rahm

One: Rejoice in the Lord always.

All: We come to worship and rejoice.

One: Again, I say "rejoice!"

All: We come to worship and rejoice!

One: Let your gentleness be known to everyone.

All: We come to worship and rejoice.

One: The Lord is near!

All: We come to worship and rejoice the One who is with us!

*OPENING HYMN

ADVENT WREATH: Candle of Joy

RESPONSE

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

UMH 211 v. 6

*"O come, thou Dayspring, come and cheer our spirits by thy justice here;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night, and death's dark shadows put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel. "*

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Scott Rahm

God who gives all gifts, in this season, we focus so much on giving gifts to one another. Help us, we pray, to remember what John the Baptist tells us is on your wish list: that we might bear fruit worthy of the repentance that is the very heart of this season: fruit of compassion, fruit of sharing, fruit by denying ourselves so that others who have little will have enough. In response to you, we give that our fruit might please you. In the Savior's name, we pray. Amen.

Advent

Come Home for Christmas Advent is an invitation. For many, it is the invitation to get into that Christmas spirit, to count down the days to the grand celebration, and let the holiday transform everything around us.

But there is a deeper and more profound invitation being offered in the season of Advent. The invitation is to remember that we are heading for home. Or if we're not, if we've forgotten that there is a home toward which to head, it is the invitation to long for the home we call the kin-dom of God. It is where family resides, where peace resides, where justice abides, and hope will rise.

Advent reminds us that we shouldn't be complacent about the way things are – not that we want to become angrily attuned to every perceived failing in those around us or the world at large; but that we want to be those who look forward to something greater, something more that is just on the horizon. Advent is the call to come home.
